1. About 10 July 1951, approximately 40 trucks which had been in the Comleann lumber factory yard were driven in the direction of Piatra Neamt. The vehicles included the following types:
  - a. Gaz - four-ton trucks, seven-cylinder engines, with six wheels.
  - b. Ford - one and one half ton passenger cars, four cylinder engines.
  - c. Seven-ton trucks, Diesel engine.
2. Informants state that there was a daily influx of vehicles into Galati from the Soviet Union. The numbers ranged between 30 and 50. These vehicles were stored in the New Basin Port area in the Badalau sector, where they remained for a few days and then were taken toward the interior of the country.
